

FIRST IN VOLUNTEERING

Short film competition – Popoli e Religioni Terni Film Festival

The San Martino Association, with its project INNOVATER run in collaboration with Popoli e Religioni - Terni Film Festival, announces the first edition of the competition for audio-visual projects related to the theme of "Volunteering" in all its meanings.

You will have 3 minutes (including titles) to tell about volunteering in all its meanings: social volunteering, cultural volunteering, sports volunteering. The video can be made with the use of any technique and format; it is not restricted to genres or styles.

The selected videos will be screened within the Popoli e Religioni Film Festival and on the screening night two prizes will be awarded by The San Martino Association.

The first prize awarded for the absolute best video includes the possibility of utilizing the video service and two days of post-production at the Innovater video lab as well as promoting this video during other film festivals.

The second prize will be awarded to the video most appreciated by the public and comprises the possibility of developing a new idea for an audio-visual project.

The works can be sent in one of the following ways:

- Send the video in the format of dvd, blu-ray, hard disk or usb stick to the address of: Popoli e Religioni – Terni Film Festival c/o Istess Cenacolo San Marco, via del Leone, 12 – 05100 Terni," with the indication: "concorso volontariato."
- Send the video attached to an email addressed to redazione.popoliereligioni@gmail.com, with the indication: "concorso volontariato."

The deadline for submitting works is October 31, 2019
