

CONTAGIOUS SOLIDARITY COMPETITION

San Martino Association, INNOVATER project in collaboration with Popoli e Religioni – Terni Film Festival establishes the second edition of the call for audio-visual projects related to the theme of volunteering in all its meanings.

The competition is reserved for short films of a maximum of 5 minutes in length dedicated to the theme of solidarity during the health emergency caused by Covid-19. The video can be made with application of any techniques and formats, and is not restricted to genres and styles.

The selected videos will be screened during one of the days of the Popoli e Religioni Terni Film Festival and during the presentations evening the two prizes offered by the San Martino Association will be awarded.

The first award for the very best video offers the possibility of having a video service and two days of post-production at the Innovater Project Video Laboratory and of promoting the video during other film festivals.

The second award will be assigned to a video most appreciated by the public. It consists in the possibility of developing a new project idea for an audio-visual project.

The works can be sent in one of the following ways:

- Send the work on DVD, Blu-ray, hard disk or pen drive to the address: “Popoli e Religioni – Terni Film Festival c/o Istess Cenacolo San Marco, via del Leone, 12 – 05100 Terni,” with the indication “Concorso Innovater”.
- Sending the works via an e-mail, in attachment, to the following address redazione.popoliereligioni@gmail.com, with the indication “Concorso Innovater”.

The deadline for submitting the works is 31 October 2020.